Rep. Bragg moved to amend as follows:

Amendment No. 5

AMEND Senate Bill No. 1737 by adding the following new section immediately preceding the last section and by renumbering the subsequent section accordingly:

Section _____. In any county that has adopted a county zoning ordinance, then, notwithstanding any provision of law, rule or regulation to the contrary, a municipality shall be authorized to annex territory or territories totaling less than one-fourth (1/4) square mile in area or having a population of less than five hundred (500) persons following the procedures set forth in Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 6, Chapter 51, Part 1, after providing notice of the intent to annex the area in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality and the area of the proposed annexation. Notice shall be published at least fourteen (14) days prior to passage of the ordinance on final reading. The notice shall include each property owner's name, last known mailing address, county tax parcel number for the tract and street address for the tract, whenever practicable. If the ordinance to annex and relevant plan of service includes fewer than twenty (20) property owners, notice of the public hearing on a plan of service shall include as a minimum the county tax parcel number, street address of the property whenever practicable, and each property owner's name and last known mailing address. Notice shall be provided in a newspaper of general circulation which is published or circulated in the city or town and the territory proposed to be annexed, at least fourteen (14) days prior to passage of the ordinance on final reading.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to any area that would not by virtue of the annexation come under the authority of a different governing body.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting from the new section added by House State and Local Government Committee Amendment No. 1 the words "The provisions of this act", and by substituting instead the words "The provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this act".

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting from the effective date section the words "the provisions of this act", and by substituting instead the words "the provisions of Sections 1 and 2 of this act".
